

Hinduism - 3 (3 of 8)

Across

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|---|
| 1 A forecast of the future made after studying the stars. (9) 4 The cloth used to bind a dead body. (6) 6 The soul. Hindus believe that this is the part of God in us, that moves to another body when we die. (5) 9 The worship of a god or goddess, which can take place in the home or the mandir. (4) 11 A pilgrimage centre at the head of the River Ganges where | ashes are cast into the river. (7) 12 The Hindu harvest festival. (4) 14 Believed to be an avatar of Vishnu - one of the Hindu gods whose teachings are found in the Bhagavad Gita. (7) 15 Another name for the Upanishads. (7) 16 A belief that the soul is reborn in a new body. (13) 17 Money or other items given to the bridegroom by the bride's father at a marriage. (5) | 18 A celebration in honour of the goddess Saraswati. (9,4) 20 Love or devotion. (6) | carried out at a person's death. (8) 13 The main area in a mandir where Hindus sit on the floor to worship - also called a Mandapa. (11) 15 A pilgrimage centre on the River Jumna, and the birthplace of Krishna. (9) 19 A person's spirit. (4) |
|--|---|---|---|

Down

- | |
|--|
| 2 A Hindu holy man. (5) 3 A shrine room, also called an adytum or a cella - the inner sanctuary of a temple. (10) 5 People known as the 'pariahs'. (12) 7 The burning of a dead body. (9) 8 The fish god, one of the nine avatars of Vishnu. (6) 10 The last rites |
|--|